ABC-Amega Appoints Regional Vice President

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega, a global commercial receivables management firm headquartered in Buffalo, NY, is pleased to announce that Dan Shantler has accepted a new role with the company, Regional Vice President Central territory.

In this role, Dan will oversee business development efforts in nine Central U.S. states, Illinois, Wisconsin, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas. He will be responsible for maintaining relationships with current clients and growing new opportunities in the region, as well as engaging with a number of ABC-Amega's key global clients.

Dan has over 20 years of experience in the credit and collections industry, and began his career at ABC-Amega in the early 1990's. He has also held positions with YRC Worldwide, where he was the Director of Credit & Collections, NCO Financial, and Nidec Motor Corporation. Most recently, he oversaw ABC-Amega's Third-party Collections, when he returned to the company in 2016. Shantler holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Communication and Sociology from the University of Buffalo.

"I'm excited to have Dan transition to the sales side of the business," said Paul Catalano, COO, ABC-Amega. "Dan's expertise coupled with his personality and character will continue to be an asset to our company and clients," added Paul.
