ABC-Amega CEO Reappointed to U.S. Department of Commerce Trade Finance Advisory Council

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega, a global commercial receivables management firm headquartered in Buffalo, NY, is pleased to announce that CEO, David Herer, has been reappointed to the U.S. Department of Commerce Trade Finance Advisory Council (TFAC).

The TFAC was established in 2016 by the International Trade Administration (ITA) and re-chartered in August 2018. The TFAC serves as the principal advisory board to the Secretary of Commerce on matters relating to access to trade finance for U.S. exporters. Herer is one of twenty members who will continue to serve on this board. In his role, David provides counsel on issues and concerns that affect trade finance in the United States.

“The work of the Trade Finance Advisory Council is important to U.S competitiveness, and trade policy is a vital concern of our clients,” said Herer. “I am thrilled to be part of this board for another term and continue this important work.” he added.
