ABC-Amega Hires Regional Vice President

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega, a global commercial receivables management firm headquartered in Buffalo, NY, is pleased to announce that Tammy P. Osborne has been hired as Regional Vice President Southern territory.

In this role, Tammy will oversee business development efforts in nine Southern U.S. states. She will be responsible for maintaining relationships with current clients and growing new opportunities in the region, as well as engaging with a number of ABC-Amega's key global clients.

Tammy brings more than twenty years of industry experience with her to ABC-Amega, most recently as the Vice President of National Key Accounts for a national commercial collection agency. Prior to that, Tammy owned The Anderson Group Worldwide for fifteen years. Her broad experience includes time in client development and support for a Metairie collections agency, as well as account service for a New Orleans area bank. Tammy earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Management and Marketing from the University of North Carolina of Greensboro.

"I'm excited to have someone with Tammy's exceptional professionalism and collections industry expertise," said David Herer, CEO, ABC-Amega. "We expect that she'll immediately make great contributions to our company and clients, based on her experience and character," added David.
