ABC-Amega Hires VP of Global Operations

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega, a global commercial receivable management firm headquartered in Buffalo, NY, is pleased to announce that Dan Shantler has been hired as Vice President of Global Operations.

In this role, Shantler will focus on the strategic planning and development of processes and procedures for the organization's 3rd Party Global Debt Collection services. Dan brings over 20 years of experience to ABC-Amega where he began his career in the early 1990's. He has also held positions with NCO Financial, Yellow Roadway, and Nidec Motor Corporation. Shantler holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Communication and Sociology from the University of Buffalo.

"I'm pleased Dan has joined our team, his expertise in the industry and his familiarity with our company pave the way for him to have a solid leadership role in our Global Operations division," said Paul Catalano, President, ABC-Amega.

"I am thrilled to be back at ABC-Amega," said Shantler. "The vision of the leadership and their investment in the company made it a very easy decision to come back," he added.

Founded in 1929 as The American Bureau of Collections, ABC-Amega is an award-winning commercial collections agency specializing in global debt collection and accounts receivable management solutions.

ABC-Amega partners with clients to improve and manage credit, cash flow and customer retention with services in 3rd party commercial debt collection, 1st party accounts receivable outsourcing, industry credit group management, and credit and A/R management training and education. The firm is dual-certified by the CLLA/IACC and is a platinum partner of the Credit Research Foundation (CRF).
