ABC-Amega Ranked as a Best Place to Work in Collections

Buffalo-based commercial collections agency included in prestigious industry listing

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega, a leading commercial collections agency, today announced that it has been named one of the Best Places to Work in Collections for 2016 by insideARM. Out of more than 4,600 collection agencies in the U.S., ABC-Amega was included amongst a prestigious list of 36 companies earning industry distinction. The award recognizes collections agencies that provide a satisfying and motivating work environment for employees.

“We’re honored to be named a Best Place to Work in Collections,” said Paul Catalano, president and COO of ABC-Amega. “Our employees are our greatest asset, and we believe that creating a culture that encourages them to thrive translates into top-notch service for our clients. This honor also demonstrates our widespread dedication and the hard work on display daily at ABC-Amega.”

Companies from across the U.S. entered a rigorous two-part survey process to determine the Best Places to Work in Collections. The first part consisted of evaluating each nominated company's workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics. The second part consisted of an employee survey to measure overall employee experience. The combined scores then determined the top companies and final ranking. ABC-Amega came in at number four in the mid-sized companies category of employers with 50-149 employees.

According to Stephanie Eidelman, CEO of insideARM, “This has been a terrific program for the industry over the past nine years. It’s so important to celebrate what’s positive and acknowledge that – just like any other industry – collections is comprised of human beings who value connection, opportunity for advancement, healthy company culture, and a good relationship with their supervisor. Getting this right can help make the difference between high and low turnover, which is so critical to the success of any call center.”

The Best Places to Work in Collections program was established by insideARM, the leading independent news and information provider for the collections industry, and is administered by Best Companies Group, which conducts over 40 local, national and industry “Best Places” programs each year.
