ABC-Amega Named as Management Organization for Commercial Foreign Credit Group

Buffalo, NY –ABC-Amega, a Buffalo, NY-based global commercial receivables management firm, has been chosen as the management company of the Commercial Foreign Credit Group (CFCG). The group, formerly known as the Cleveland Foreign Credit Group, is comprised of senior credit executives from manufacturers, distributors, and service providers who engage in or contribute to global commerce. CFCG members benefit from credit industry education, networking, and regular country risk reporting data and account discussions

“CFCG began as a regional group based in Cleveland, Ohio, where members met monthly to discuss our credit challenges and opportunities within the various foreign countries we do business in,” stated Mark Miazga, Corporate Credit Manager at Parker Hannifin. “Over the last few months it’s become increasingly apparent that the members our group would benefit from an expanded and more diverse membership. In order to grow and market ourselves, however, we needed a strong partner. ABC-Amega’s Credit Services division is able to meet our needs for technology, sales and marketing,” added Miazga.

Miazga is President of CFCG’s newly elected board. He is joined by Vice President, Tony Zalar, Director Customer Credit Services at Lincoln Electric, and Past Chair, Inna Gogoua, Vice President & Director of International Financial Institution for PNC Bank’s Financial Institutions Group.

ABC-Amega is responsible for managing CFCG’s membership roster, dues, credit interchange software, marketing and sales promotion, and for planning the group’s monthly and quarterly meetings. In 2020, all meetings will be held virtually, but the organization is hoping to schedule quarterly, in-person meetings in the Great Lakes area beginning in the spring of 2021.

“We are very excited to be able to contribute to the ongoing success of CGCG by providing new technology and resources to support its growth,” stated Paul Grolemond, Divisional Vice President, Credit Services. “ABC-Amega has been a proud member of CFCG for nearly twenty years, so we have an appreciation for its foundation as a grassroots organization of senior credit professionals. We will strive to maintain the group’s hometown warmth while keeping its global mission in our sights.”
