ABC-Amega Named one of Business First's Best Places to Work

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega, a global commercial receivables management firm headquartered in Buffalo, NY, has been selected as a finalist for Business First of Buffalo's annual Best Places to Work recognition program. ABC-Amega is one of fourteen companies that placed as a finalist in the large company category.

To become eligible for the Best Places to Work recognition, employees complete an employee engagement survey. The survey measures six key engagement categories focusing on communication, employee needs, manager effectiveness, personal engagement, team dynamic and trust in leadership. To gather statistically sound results, companies must reach a minimum level of employee participation, based on total number of employees, to be eligible to be a finalist.

"We are happy to have received this recognition for the second consecutive year," said David Herer, CEO of ABC-Amega. "Employee satisfaction is critical to any company, so I am honored that our staff has given us this opportunity," added Herer.

Founded in 1929 as The American Bureau of Collections, ABC-Amega is an award-winning commercial collections agency specializing in global debt collection and accounts receivable management solutions.

ABC-Amega partners with clients to improve and manage credit, cash flow and customer retention with services in 3rd party commercial debt collection, 1st party accounts receivable outsourcing, industry credit group management, and credit and A/R management training and education. The firm is dual-certified by the CLLA/IACC, certified by the CCA of A, and is a platinum partner of the Credit Research Foundation (CRF).
