David Conaway is partner in the Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick Law Firm out of Charlotte, North Carolina. He got his undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and his J.D. from the University of Alabama

David's experience, business acumen, and creativity adds value for clients regarding a variety of issues involving corporate bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring; commercial contracts and business transactions; commercial disputes; and cross-border transactions, disputes and insolvencies.

David is particularly strong representing manufacturing companies, from middle market to large multinational companies in the U.S. and abroad, across many industries including agrichemicals and seeds, aluminum and glass containers and packaging, appliances, automotive, chemicals, energy, food packaging, forest products, furniture, machinery and equipment, paper and packaging, plastics and resins, steel and metals, and textiles. David has broad experience in handling commercial matters with customers, vendors, and the supply chain.

David has been involved in many of the largest insolvency cases in the U.S. and abroad, including representing unsecured creditors' committees, suppliers to or customers of distressed companies, financial institutions, private equity or portfolio companies, boards of directors, counter-parties to contracts, and buyers of distressed assets.

David is active in cross-border matters including foreign direct investment and doing business in the U.S., cross-border business transactions, cross-border commercial disputes, and cross-border insolvencies and restructurings. He has developed and maintains long-standing personal and professional relationships with financial and legal professionals around the world to assist adding value for clients' cross-border interests. David serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Globaladvocaten, a Chambers rated Top Legal Network consisting of over 800 lawyers. He is also a member of INSOL Europe, and on the Board of Editors of Eurofenix, a leading publication on global insolvency.

David supports clients and industries by devoting significant time to provide insights and updates via articles and presentations to clients, industry trade groups, and professional networks and associations.
